

El Instituto

Institute of Latina/o, Caribbean, and Latin American Studies

Week of March 31-April 4, 2014

Announcements

Tickets are still available for Generation Sex. This performance explores how technology has changed how we engage in sex, relationships, and each other while challenging the audience to identify whether their addiction to social media has impacted the 24 hour broadcast of their online personas. Can we Instagram loneliness? Has Facebook expanded how we define family? What is the art of seduction in a digital world that leaves little to the imagination?

From sexting to inventive uses of Skype to musical numbers about match.com, the Ladies of Luna explode hollow sound bytes of mainstream advice about today's search for love, satisfaction, and the new rules of feminism in 140 characters or less.

Performances are at 7:00pm on April 1 and 2 at the Ballard Institute, One Royce Circle, Storrs. For tickets call 860-486-5508 or email elinstituto@uconn.edu

On February 26, Tyra Lewis and Carla Silva-Muhammad co-presented a discussion on the film, City of God, during UConn's first annual Afro Latino week.

If you have an announcement or event, please email to anne.theriault@uconn.edu

Events

April 1, 7:00pm

Ballard Institute

One Royce Circle

Generation Sex: Performance by Teatro Luna, Chicago's first and only all-Latina theatre group. Limited seating. For tickets call 860-486-5508 or email elinstituto@uconn.edu

April 2, 5:00pm

El Instituto, Ryan Bldg., 2nd floor

HACHA Guests: Two Teatro Luna performers will join HACHA from 5:00-6:00pm to informally discuss their work.

April 2, 7:00pm

Ballard Institute

One Royce Circle

Generation Sex: Performance by Teatro Luna, Chicago's first and only all-Latina theatre group. Limited seating. For tickets call 860-486-3997 or email elinstituto@uconn.edu