

Connecticut Coalition Against Domestic Violence

Presents

Addressing the Intersection of Domestic Violence, Mental Health and Trauma in Latino Families and Children

Date:

Thursday, Sept. 25, 2014
9:00am - 1:00pm

Place:

CCADV
912 Silas Deane Highway
Wethersfield. CT 06109

Summary:

This interactive training will provide direct service providers with valuable information regarding the intersection of trauma, mental health and domestic violence. With a focus on Latino families that experience these challenges, participants will increase their capacity to intervene in a culturally relevant manner. Emphasizing the importance of collaboration between systems, the training will walk participants through an array of key concepts including trauma informed services, mental illness, domestic violence, safety planning, and accessing local resources.

Who Should Attend?

Spanish-speaking direct service providers such as counselors, social workers, domestic violence advocates, and mental health providers.

*Note: this training will be conducted in Spanish and is limited to 30 participants.

For more information or to register visit:

www.ctcadv.org/training-events/events

In collaboration with:

National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI) Connecticut
University of Connecticut Health Center/ Center for Trauma Recovery & Juvenile Justice

