

REDUCING SECLUSION AND RESTRAINT:

A CALL TO ACTION

A roundtable presentation will be co-hosted by the Office of the Child Advocate and the General Assembly's Children's Committee to address how stakeholders can work together to reduce restraint and seclusion of children.

Speakers include:

US Senator Chris Murphy, Child Advocate Sarah Eagan

Families of children with special needs

Senator Dante Bartolomeo, Representative Diana Urban

The State Departments of Education and Developmental Services

And experts from Justice Resource Institute and University of Connecticut Neag School of Education.

Friday, May 1, 11:30 to 1:00

Legislative Office Building, Room 2B