

Student Employment Scoop

Special Edition – June 2017

National Student Employment Week

National Student Employment Week 2017 took place April 9th through the 15th. Here are some of the highlights from this year's celebrations.

Student Life Awards

The Office of Student Financial Aid Services partnered with the Student Life Awards to sponsor the Student Employee and Student Employee Supervisor of the Year Awards. Pictured on the right are Shayna Sexton, recipient of the 2017 Student Employee of the Year award, and Student Supervisor of the Year Theresa Palacios-Baughman, along with the Scholarships & Student Employment staff. Our Congratulations to both, as well as all of the nominees!

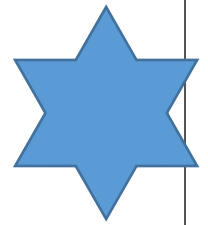

Tessa Cugno from Communications shared this pic of the goodies that they gave out to their students!

National Student Employment Week 2017- Photo Gallery

Gifts given by Admissions to their graduating seniors

The Admissions Office held an event to show their appreciation to their student employees, who are shown above. They decorated the hallway and set out treats. Graduating students received a small token of appreciation.

Laurie Hockla from Mechanical Engineering sent in this pic of their student, Ryan Blatchley, who has proved to be a great asset to their team.

Student Employees from Biology Central Services were treated to a pizza party!

Throw the confetti and join the parade.....it's THANKS to our STUDENTS that we have it made!

Financial Aid had a Mardi Gras themed celebration

Students from the Office of Environmental Policy at the Arbor Day Tree Planting

